

Olé is a cultural extravaganza that plunges into the expression of creativity and art with Meraki. The festival which was held on the 23rd and 24th of January 2020 was attended by around 2000 students all across Mumbai.

The theme for this year's festival was Meraki. Meraki is the essence that the artists put into their artwork to make their creation immortal. This 'kala' by the 'kalakaars' is what gives the 'akaar' to our tomorrow. We believe that art is the highest form of individualism and artists shape our tomorrow. Artists are creators who are fueled by their passion and relentless determination. The Joint Commissioner of Police(EOW), Shri Rajvardhan inaugurated the fest by lighting the lamp in the Opening Ceremony which was made vibrant and lively by the traditional performances of the students. As 'Jab bolo, Sab bolo, Saare bolo ek saath - Olé Olé' reverberated in every person's ear, the diligent workforce gave their everything to make sure that the events were smoothly organised, without any glitches.

The masses of people were jubilant and cheered for the celebrity judges like Vaibhav Ghuge, Sushmita Singh, Loka, Sameep Dhakane, Tushar Shetty, Oxana Khukarenok, Shez as they walked down the red carpet.

The food stalls were bustling with crowd for the delectable food. Pizzas, shawarmas, burgers, juices, you name it and you had it.

The fest was brought to an end by the closing ceremony where the college principal Dr. Prof. Anna Nikalje addressed the students and participants with her encouraging words, as she thanked them for making the festival a massive success. The winners were felicitated with trophies and certificates in this ceremony.

The end of the festival witnessed the much awaited DJ night, where the DJ pumped everyone up with his upbeat music and the crowd danced to his tunes.

As the final day came to a close, it was a bittersweet ending for the workforce. The core team was over the moon as they knew that every volunteer, every participant was going home with good memories and they had set a benchmark for the next Olé team.

