

Important Notice : Caution About Fee Payments

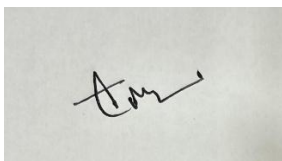

Wilson College students should be aware that some unauthorised persons/agencies may contact applicants/students through WhatsApp, SMS messages/emails/ phone calls, asking them to make the payment for admission/ re-registration, etc., through fraudulent payment links. Do not share any document/receipt or personal data when contacted.

The College has not authorised any person or agency to receive payment on its behalf for any purpose whatsoever.

Students are advised to visit only the official Wilson College website (www.wilsoncollege.edu) and follow the relevant links available there to pay admission/re-registration fees, etc. Please check the full email address of the any mail pertaining to admission before responding.

Emails related to admission/re-registration etc. are sent by the College only through the official email IDs: @wilsoncollege.edu. Emails received from any other email ID asking for payment are to be treated as fake and should be reported to the police.

Wilson College will not be responsible for payments made through any such fraudulent payment link or website. Students are advised to be cautious and not fall prey to such fraudsters.
